Camp Card Information for 2017

Remember to sell Camp Cards in the spring of 2017. A Camp Card will be your admittance to the Scout Show and your unit will earn an additional $1.00 per Camp Card sold for registering and manning a 2017 Scout Show booth. Look for Camp Card information-COMING SOON!

Camp Card accounts will NOT be reconciled at the Scout Show!

All Scouts (including Girl Scouts) in uniform are admitted free. All other adults, family members (over age 7) and visitors must show a BSA Camp Card or purchase one at the ticket window inside the main entrance.

Booth Recognition: All Units hosting a booth at the Scout Show will receive a Participation Ribbon for their unit flag.

How to Create a Great Booth

Having a Scout Show booth and participating in the 2017 Scout Show allows your Scouts to show off some of the great things they have done recently or you can develop a new and exciting activity for your Scouts. Ideas for a Scout Show booth can be found throughout the Cub Scout, Boy Scout, Exploring, and Venturing programs and can incorporate this year's theme. "Scout POWER". Let your Scouts get creative and have fun but please review the Guide to Safe Scouting.

There are few simple steps to a fantastic booth:

Meet with your Scouts and parents to discuss what your unit wants to do for its booth.

- Choose a Cub Scout Adventure or merit badge and develop your booth around the theme.
- Prepare your Scouts to demonstrate and explain how their booth relates operates.
- Booths should be interactive, fun, and hands-on.
- Choose an exciting name for your booth and include that information when you register
- your booth with the Council at www.denverboyscouts.org/scoutshow
- Plan a booth coverage schedule and duty assignments

When registering your booth, keep in mind these details:

- Hall of Education: Inside the main building, with concrete floors, 12-foot ceilings and 10x10 pipe and drape booth space. If you need a larger booth than a 10x10 just indicate your needs when you register.
- Arena: Lower level, inside, dirt floor and 35 foot ceilings. Space is limited and on a first come first serve allocation. Please indicate the amount of floor space your unit would like when you register. Great for pioneering and obstacle courses.
- Outside: Asphalt area just outside to the south of the Hall of Education. Good for cooking demos, model campsites, Tee-Pees and other large displays.

Booth Materials:

- Units are responsible to provide, set-up, and clean up all booth materials.
- Tables will be available to rent from National Western for $6 and chairs for $1 each (cash only) or provide your own.
- Electricity will be available but must be specified when registering (unit should bring a 50 foot grounded extension cord, a power strip, and duct tape.

Fire/Cooking: Propane and charcoal cooking is allowed outside only. (One-pound propane bottles only.) Denver Fire Marshals reserve the right to shut down any fire/cooking display. No open flames allowed inside. All fire/cooking booths must have a fire extinguisher rated 2A-10BC with a current certification.

Communications: No loudspeakers, bullhorns or public address systems.

Commercialism: No items or services may be sold or promoted by a unit at their booth. Raffles are not allowed.

Booth/Projectile Safety

For those units that wish to create a Scout Show Booth which uses any kind of projectile (trebuchet, marshmallow shooters, ping pong balls, rubber bands, etc.), please be aware that you need to follow BSA Policy as outlined in the Guide to Safe Scouting.

The guide is available at www.scouting.org/HealthandSafety/GSS.aspx

Qualified Supervision. Every BSA activity should be supervised by a conscientious adult who understands and knowingly accepts responsibility for the well-being and safety of the children and youth in his or her care. The supervisor should be sufficiently trained, experienced, and skilled in the activity to be confident of his or her ability to lead and teach the necessary skills and to respond effectively in the event of an emergency. Field knowledge of all applicable BSA standards and a commitment to implement and follow BSA policy and procedures are essential parts of the supervisor's qualifications.

Safe Area or Course. A key part of the supervisor's responsibilities is to know the area or course for the activity and to determine that it is well suited and free of hazards.

Safety Procedures and Policies. For most activities, common-sense procedures and standards can greatly reduce any risk. These should be known and appreciated by all participants, and the supervisor must assure compliance.

POINTING ANY TYPE OF FIREARM OR SIMULATED FIREARM AT ANY INDIVIDUAL OR SIMULATED HUMAN TARGET IS UNAUTHORIZED.

The use of paintball guns, laser guns, or similar devices may be utilized in target shooting events only, with prior Council approval and following the Guide to Safe Scouting. Council approval means the approval by the Denver Area Council Shooting Sports Committee.

In short: All activities at the Scout Show that have a projectile involved should, at minimum, do the following:

- Must have an adult, over 21, who understands the hazards of the activity, and accepts the responsibility for running the event.
- All projectiles must be contained within the booth.
- The staff and participants of the booth must use eye protection and other safety equipment.

Shooting Sports are a fun and exciting part of the Scouting experience. As in any activity, safety should always be the first priority for both the participants and the by-standers.
