

Denver Area Council BSA and the Conservation Committee present: William T. Hornaday Award Weekend Adult Program

April 4-5, 2014

Castle View High School 5254 North Meadows Drive Castle Rock, CO 80109

While your Scout is in class, come learn about the Hornaday Awards, and what's required to earn them. It may not be as hard as you think!!

"What are the Hornaday Awards"

Session 1: 6pm - 10pm, Friday, April 4th

The awards have been available for nearly 100 years, and yet few people know about them. Discover the awards that are available for Units (Packs/Troops/Venturers), Scouts (Boy Scouts and Venturers), volunteers, and organizations. Everyone is welcome to attend.

"Leave No Trace 101"

Session 2: 8am - 12pm, Saturday, April 5th

In this class Leave No Trace Master Educator Brian Hendricks will catch you up on current best practices, and give you the skills to help your Scouts satisfy their Leave No Trace requirements for advancement. This is Leave No Trace in a nutshell.

"Pick-a-Project"

Session 3: 1pm-5pm, Saturday, April 5th

Representatives from various Federal, State, and local agencies will be on-hand so Scouts and parents can 'shop' for a project. Don't leave without a project in mind.

Cost is $25 for adults

Online registration is now available at: www.denverboyscouts.org
Food (lunch & dinner on April 4th) will be provided on site.
